ABOUT ALICE ROTHCHILD:
In 1997, through her involvement in the Boston Workmen's Circle, a progressive secular Jewish organization, Alice turned much of her non-medical focus to understanding the Israeli/Palestinian conflict and its relationship to US foreign policy and American Jewry. She co-chairs American Jews for a Just Peace – Boston, and co-organized the AJJP Health and Human Rights Project. Presently, she is an Assistant Professor of Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Reproductive Biology at Harvard Medical School. She is the author of Broken Promises, Broken Dreams: Stories of Jewish and Palestinian Trauma and Resilience.

"A soul searching examination of ordinary people bonded in a tragic embrace . . .[It's] about healing festering wounds and narrowing irreconcilable differences. It deserves the widest readership" - Bernard Lown, MD, Professor emeritus, Harvard School of Public Health, Co-recipient Nobel Peace Prize
